New Business: Pauline Lee, County Clerk presented to the board two resignations, one from James Hoffman, Benton Township Trustee and one from Kevin Kiehl, Grasshopper Township Treasurer, Mr. Kiehl in his resignation letter recommended putting Bill Speer back in as Grasshopper Township Treasurer since he was already in the position. Commissioner Noll said he would suggest appointing Rick Taliaferro back to the Benton Township Trustee and to reappoint Bill Speer to the position of Grasshopper Township Treasurer, Chairman Pohl second and called for a vote, both voted aye, motion carried, 2-0, Commissioner Schuele absent from meeting. County Clerk Pauline Lee will notify the appointees.

Joey Walker resident that lives on Hunter Landing Road appeared to ask the commissioner about taking over the road, they have a person that right now does the grading and is getting old and he is the only one with equipment, Chairman Pohl it is possibly a private road and only option he sees is a special road district. Commissioner Noll asked how much road is it, Seth Howard, Road and Bridge Superintendent said 750 feet. Commissioner Noll asked how many houses on the road, there is four houses and five land owners. Commissioner Noll said he doesn't really know the layout would like to go look at it. Seth said that residents have widen the road to 20 feet and have put down a base. Eric said will need to look at how other subdivisions did it and what they did to get county to take over the roads, Board discussed cost of chip and sealing the road and cost of asphaltting, Seth said asphalt would be around $16,000 compared to chip and seal of around $6,000. Chairman Pohl said it would be up to the residents to get road up to specs before county could possibly take over, Bill will need to do check into what other subdivisions have done in past.

Joe Bowen, Maintenance appeared with an agreement with River Bluff Architects, Inc. to do the ADA on county buildings, Joe said that he did include Sports Complex both Effingham and Atchison, did not know about Community Corrections building, Joe will ask the architect if they will need to do the Community Corrections building. Commissioner Noll said he would be willing to talk to Dan Pickman, owner of the building to see if they were willing to fix anything that River Bluff found during their ADA walk through. Board asked Joe if he would come back in two weeks to talk more on the agreement.
